Free meal service expanded to include weekends

Springfield Public Schools food service provider Sodexo is expanding the free meal service it is currently providing for Springfield youth. In addition to having free meals available Monday-Friday, Sodexo announced today the availability of meals for the weekend also.

Saturday and Sunday meals will be provided on Fridays between 11 a.m. and 1 p.m. m at all of the meal sites in Springfield (Bowles, Chestnut Middle School, Commerce, Dorman, Glickman, Indian Orchard, Kensington, Liberty, Lincoln, Rebecca Johnson, South End, Talmage, Warner and Washington schools). Families are asked to bring a reusable bag on Fridays if possible, to carry home the food for the weekend.

The free breakfast and lunch meals are available to Springfield youth aged 18 and younger. Meals are also available to persons with disabilities, over age 18, who participate in school programs for people who are mentally or physically disabled. Identification is not required but the child or youth must be present. Parents/guardians/grandparents, etc. cannot pick up meals for people who are not physically present at time of pickup.
